Are you a starving student? Going to a university, trade school or simply consider yourself a student of life? Garofalo wants to help. They are giving away a pack of their signature pasta line to five lucky Wise Bread readers. Read on for prize details and entry requirements.

In honor of the back to school season, Garofalo is sponsoring a give away exclusively for Wise Bread to help out with your grocery bill. Live in the U.S. and Canada and have a tip for starving students on how to make financial ends meet? Share it below to be entered. That's it. The tip can be for groceries, auto, recipes, home repair, cutting down on utilities . . . anything really.

The deadline?

Next Monday, September 1st at 9:00 a.m.

The prize?

A pack of Garofalo's Signature pasta line to include one of the following three types:

- Fusilli
- Farfalle
- Whole Wheat Spaghetti

As stated above, all you need to do to enter is to live in the United States or Canada and submit a tip on how to make financial ends meet. That way, this article will not only be a time-limited contest, but a collection of tip resources for those of us struggling to make ends meet. So how about it, Wise Bread readers? How do you pull a money rabbit out of a hat?
